

Janine Flahive DPT

Physical Therapist

Janine received her Doctorate of Physical Therapy from MGH Institute of Health Professions in 2008. Throughout her career she has enjoyed working with individuals of all ages and abilities. Her biggest passion is helping people reach their goals and getting back to being physically active. Her career focus has been in orthopedics, cancer rehab, spine, and health and wellness. She has taken continuing education courses in Dry Needling, Treating Athletes (Runner, Triathletes, Throwing athletes, and Tactile (police/fire/military), Prosthetic and Amputee care, and Mulligans Management of the Spine. Outside the office she enjoys running, biking, swimming, skiing, playing hockey and being active.

Education St. Michael's College 2005: Bachelors of Science, Major Biology, Minor Chemistry
 MGH Institute of Health Professions 2008- Doctorate of Physical Therapy

Specialties Orthopedic Rehab
 Spine Rehab
 Cancer Rehab
 Sports Rehab
 Dry Needling