

Patti Buck, BSPT, CEEAA, GCS

Physical Therapist

Patti has lived in the area for over 20 years. She began working for Exeter Health Resources in 1993 and has been practicing PT in a variety of settings. Currently located in the Exeter outpatient clinic, Patti's areas of interest are in treating older adults and adults with neurological issues. In her free time she enjoys spending time with family and friends and taking advantage of all that the four seasons has to offer including skiing, hiking, and biking.

Education BS and certificate in Physical Therapy from Russell Sage College, 1978

Certifications CEEAA (Certification as an Exercise Expert for Aging Adults) from APTA's Academy of Geriatric Physical Therapy, 2015

ABPTS board certified in Geriatrics, GCS, 2016

Specialties Rehab for older adults with interest in helping those dealing with neurological issues, complex medical issues, total joint replacement, osteoporosis, vertigo, balance issues