

Denise Murphy-Simmons, PTDPT, M.Ed., CCI, PCS

Physical Therapist

Denise is a Senior Physical Therapist in the Pediatric Rehabilitation Department of Exeter Hospital. She works as adjunct faculty at Franklin Pierce University for the pediatrics physical therapy course and has been a guest lecturer at both Franklin Pierce University and Massachusetts College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences. Denise has been a practicing physical therapist for 36 years in a variety of settings. She has worked primarily in pediatrics for the last 24 years, in the school, outpatient and adult developmental delay settings.

Education	Northeastern University - BS in Physical Therapy, 1983 University of NH – Master’s Degree in Education with a Special Needs Option, 2005 College of Saint Scholastica - Doctorate in Physical Therapy, 2018
Location	Pediatric Rehabilitation at the Epping Regional Health Center 212 Calef Highway, Epping, NH 03042
Specialties/ Areas of Interest	Certified Pediatric Clinical Specialist Credentialed Clinical Instructor Kinesiotape application Myofascial release Cranial Sacral trained Scoliosis treatment techniques Torticollis management Toe walking management

Complex medical condition rehabilitation

Scoliosis- Introductory Training in Scoliosis Specific Exercise, 3D treatment of Scoliosis