

Javier A. Corredor, MS, DPT

Physical Therapist

Javier received his undergraduate degree at New England College and his Doctor of Physical Therapy degree at Marymount University in Arlington, VA. He has fifteen (15) years of experience developing skills in various settings which include Athletic Training, Assistant Professor for a PTA program, a neurological based day rehabilitation program, and as a Soccer coach for Seacoast United Soccer Club. He has particular interests in mentoring and educating the future physical therapists/assistants in the orthopedic field, and in developing a comprehensive treatment approach that includes skilled manual therapy and therapeutic exercise education and prescription.

Education: Marymount University, Arlington, VA
t-DPT – 2004
Marymount University, Arlington, VA
MSPT – 2004
New England College, Henniker, NH
B.A. - ATC / Education – 1994

Specialties: Orthopedics
Aquatic Physical Therapy
Manual Therapy
Dry Needling

Other: Fluent in Spanish (written & spoken)