

Keith Kupiec, DPT, ATC, CSCS

Physical Therapist

Keith has been working in outpatient orthopedics since he received his Doctorate of Physical Therapy from Stony Brook University in 2015. Prior to becoming a Physical Therapist, Keith worked as an Athletic Trainer with Division III athletes. He is particularly interested in orthopedic and sports related injuries. Returning patients to their prior level of function is very rewarding to him. In his free time Keith enjoys sports and being outdoors.

Education            Springfield College – 2009 Bachelors of Science in Athletic Training
                          Stony Brook University – 2015 Doctorate of Physical Therapy

Specialties            Orthopedics
                          Pre/Post-Surgical Rehabilitation
                          Sports Medicine
                          Certified in Graston Technique
                          Certified in Dry Needling