

THE CENTER FOR CANCER CARE

The Center for Cancer Care at Exeter Hospital has a unique collaboration with specialists from the Massachusetts General Hospital Cancer Center to offer patients the highest level of cancer care in the region. Leading radiation oncologists and medical oncologists/hematologists from Mass General are available to patients at Exeter Hospital, with convenient access to additional cancer specialists as needed. We focus on providing integrated care through our multi-disciplinary clinics for breast, prostate and lung cancers, which offer personalized evaluations and treatment from a collaborative team of experts.
