

Carissa J. Magri M.S. CCC-SLP

Speech and Language Pathologist

Carissa is board certified speech language pathologist who has experience treating patients all along the medical continuum including acute care, subacute care, homecare and outpatient therapy. She holds a Certificate of Clinical Competence from the American Speech, Language and Hearing Association. Carissa sees a variety of patients including those with voice, speech/language, swallow and/or cognitive linguistic impairments. In addition to clinical work, Carissa sits on the New Hampshire State Speech Pathology Licensing Board. In her free time, Carissa enjoys spending time with husband and two children, summering at Moosehead Lake, cooking, reading and knitting.

Education

- Undergraduate: University of New Hampshire: BS in Communication Sciences and Disorders 2007
- Graduate: University of New Hampshire: MS in Communication Sciences and Disorders

Certifications

- Lee Silverman Voice Therapy
- Vital Stim Certified for neuromuscular electrical stimulation.
- CPR certified