

Atmaja Oak, MSPT, DPT

Physical Therapist

Atmaja moved to the United States in 2015 for advanced education and to attain expertise in her field. In the last seven years, she has worked with a wide range of patients and in various settings. She believes in a thorough assessment to guide her clinical decision making and uses the best evidence to guide her treatments. She is passionate about treating people with various orthopedic conditions. She has also recently attained certification in vestibular rehabilitation.

Education      Bachelors in Physiotherapy, Seth G.S. Medical College and K.E.M Hospital, Mumbai, India (2015)
Master of Science in Physical therapy, MGH Institute of Health Professions, Boston (2017)
Doctor of Physical Therapy, Touro College, New York (2020)

Specialties      Orthopedic physical therapy
Spine rehabilitation
Post-operative rehabilitation
Injury assessment and management
GRASTON technique provider
Myofascial release
Certified vestibular therapist
Fall prevention and neuro rehabilitation